2. The Naval Hist. of Eng. both Publick and Mercantile, compleat in all its Branches, from the Norman Conquest, to the Conclusion of the Year 1734, by Mr. Lediard, in 2 vol. Folio, (Dedicated to the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wager, Kt.) Price 1 l. 10 s. In 1 volume 1 l. 6 s.

3. A compleat English Dictionary. Containing the true Meaning of all Words in the English Language: Also the proper Names of all the Kingdoms, Towns, and Cities in the World: Properly Explain'd and Alphabetically Disposed. Design'd for the Use of Gentlemen, Ladies, Foreigners, Artificers, Tradesmen; and all who desire to Speak or Write English in its present Purity and Perfection. By De Foe, Gent. Price 3 s.

4. A compleat History of Arianism from the Origin of it, in the Year 306 to 1666, shewing its Influence upon Civil Affairs, and the Causes of the Dissolution of the Roman Empire. To which is added, the History of Socinianism, Translated from the original French of the learned Fathers Maimbourg and Lamy. Two introductory Discourses, by the Rev. Dr. Webster, Curate of St. Dunstons, publish'd at the Request of the Rev. and Learned Dr. Waterland, in 2 vol. 4to. Pr. 12 s.

5. Considerations on the Necessity of taking the Annuities granted by Parliament in the Reigns of K. William and Q. Anne; and reducing One Fifth of the Capitol Stock of all the Persons possess'd of Five Thousand Pounds or more in the South-Sea-Company: In order to pay off the National Debt, and ease Trade, and the Landed Interest. Pr. 6d.

6. A View of the Dangers to which the Trade of Great-Britain to Turkey and Italy will be exposed, if Naples and Sicily fall into the Hands of the Spaniards. Wherein Enquiry is made, whether the same Reasons that induc'd Great-Britain to destroy the Spanish Fleet in 1718, are not still subsisting; and whether it would not be adviseable to give those Kingdoms to some Prince who has no Dependance upon the House of Bourbon: Together with the Treaty of Mediation between England and Holland in 1668, for obliging the Kings of France and Spain to agree to the Terms propos'd by the Mediators. With a Chart of the Mediterranean. By J. Campbell, Gent. Price 1 s.

7. The Conduct of the Emperor and Muscovies compared with that of France since the Treaty of Utrecht: Wherein is demonstrated, That the Emperor, &c. have acted in Opposition to the Trade, Interest and Honour of Great-Britain, and that France has punctually perform'd all her Engagements with Eng. by John Bruce, Gent. Price 6d.

8. Baston on Trade and publick Spirit, Shewing, That all Trade ought to be in Common, the Danger of Monopolies, Stock-Jobbing, &c. Of Projectors, Lotteries, and other Cheats; of the selling of Places, Corruptions in Elections of Members of Parliament, in the Law, in the Commission of Peace, and Select Vestries, the Advantage of a publick Spirit, and wherein it consists.
